

Audition Notice – RED

(Formerly known as Flippin' Flighty Fairytales)

Dad's Garage Theatre is seeking performers for RED, an exciting theatrical production combining acting, dance, and acrobatics into a fast-paced and visually dynamic storytelling experience. Think South Park meets Cirque du Soleil.

We are looking for performers with strengths in comedic acting / character work AND one or more of the following areas:

- Parkour / Stunts
- Dance / Movement / Burlesque
- Gymnastics / Physical Theatre / Circus Skills

Performers do not need to be experienced in all disciplines, but should feel confident and skilled in at least one physical discipline. If you're funny and know how to move, we'd like to meet you.

Initial Audition Submission

Please submit your video audition by:

Deadline: June 28th

Submission Requirements

- Please submit 2 short videos (under 3 mins each)
- A) something that shows off your comedic performance chops, could be a 1–2 minute monologue, a character piece you wrote yourself, a clip of your stand-up, a sketch or short film that features you, your acting reel, anything at all that showcases you being funny
- B) a sample of your physical abilities, could be a dance/burlesque piece, a video of you doing parkour in the wild, clips of stunts you've done, an excerpt from an archival video of a physical theatre piece you were a part of, anything at all that showcases your physical prowess
- Include your name and any relevant theater, movement, dance, or gymnastic experience
